Emily Harris, Lead School Age Teacher

Hi! My name is Ms. Emily. I have been at KFA for about 6 months. I started out here as an assistant teacher in the infant room. I enjoyed working with the babies but my head was set on working with the older kids. So, when they asked me about the position as school age teacher I was thrilled! I am now the lead school age teacher and I love it.

I have two years of experience working in a child care center. Before KFA I worked at another center as the lead school age teacher there! I was also a nanny for about four years and was working one on one with a child who has autism. On top of my work experience, I have two children of my own, ages 4 and 7.

I just moved back to Ohio last year. I lived in sunny South Florida for 3 years, but I grew up and am from the area. I have a rambunctious Rottweiler/husky mix puppy at home and I also have a hedgehog that is our class pet. I have 5 siblings and just recently got engaged. I love teaching and seeing the kids in my class learn new things, gain more knowledge, and grow throughout the year.

I look forward to having your child as a part of our class!
